Urban Pedagogy
Benefit Party
3 Oct 2019

The Center for Urban Pedagogy (CUP) is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization that uses the power of design and art to increase meaningful civic engagement. Recent recognition of CUP's impact includes a National Design Award in 2016 from the Cooper Hewitt, Smithsonian Design Museum and a National Arts & Humanities Youth Program Award in 2015 from First Lady Michelle Obama.

“[CUP creates]
products that aren’t
just cool to designers
but are also respected by sociologists and political activists, and are actually useful.”
— *Metropolis

“CUP doesn’t just want Brooklynites
to contemplate deli demographics. They want them to hang out
at community board
meetings and write
their councilmember.”
— *NYLON

CUP's programs
are made possible
in part with public
funds and private grants from:

National Endowment for the Arts, New York State Council on the Arts, with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature, New York City Department of Cultural Affairs, in partnership with the City Council, Council Member Diana Ayala, Council Member Vanessa Gibson, Council Member Ben Kallos, Council Member Brad Lander, Council Member Antonio Reynoso, Council Member Ritchie Torres, Bay and Paul Foundation, Brooklyn Community Foundation, Capital One, Kresge Foundation, Laurie M.
